Total Armored Car and Morphis, Inc. Partner to Provide Innovative AI* Based Cash Management Solutions for Live Life Federal Credit Union

Detroit, Mi — Total Armored Car, a leading provider of cash management solutions, has partnered with Morphis, Inc., an AI-driven technology company, to offer cutting-edge cash handling services for Live Life Federal Credit Union (LLFCU). This collaboration has resulted in significant cost savings, increased efficiency for the credit union, and enhanced experience for their cannabis industry partners and members.

Through Morphis' web portal, LLFCU now has access to a comprehensive suite of services, including the ability to place orders, download vault balancing reports, and reconcile Smart, Safe general ledger accounts.

Moreover, Morphis' AI-based forecasting tool allows LLFCU to accurately estimate future cash and coin needs, ensuring the right inventory mix is on hand to meet their members' change order requests. This improves member satisfaction and reduces the credit union's interest costs by preventing overstocking.

Kevin O'Connor, Live Life Federal Credit Union's CFO, stated, "Using Morphis' automation of Smart Safe deposits and the streamlining of our armored carrier services, we have significantly reduced time and errors while driving improved member service. The AI-based vault forecasting tool has been a game-changer, also allowing us to accurately predict our members' change order requests and maintaining the right inventory levels." Total Armored Car facilitated this partnership, providing a complete change delivery service that utilizes a web portal for permission-based money ordering. This process eliminates location-based payments and ensures a seamless, transparent, and efficient experience for all parties involved.

"Using Morphis' automation of Smart Safe deposits and the streamlining of our armored carrier services, we have significantly reduced time and errors while driving improved member service."

Alif Rahman, President of Morphis, Inc., commented on the partnership: "Our collaboration with Total Armored Car has allowed us to provide LLFCU with a truly innovative cash management solution. The use of artificial intelligence to forecast coin and currency orders has significantly improved their operations and member service, setting a new standard in the industry."
