Morphis Inc. Launches mFED App for CITs to Participate in Federal Reserve Cash Visibility E-Manifest Initiative

Dateline: [Dallas, Texas, June 5, 2024] — Morphis Inc., a leading provider of cash management solutions, is excited to announce the launch of mFED, a new app designed to enable carriers to pilot the Federal Reserve Cash Visibility E-Manifest initiative. This initiative is a significant step towards enhancing efficiency and security within the cash supply chain by providing better tracking and visibility of cash shipments.

Introducing mFED: A Simplified, Free Solution

mFED is an independent, simplified, and free app that allows carriers to engage in the Federal Reserve Banks Cash Visibility E-Manifest initiative without the need for significant technological investment. This innovative app enables carriers to test their processes and technological readiness before fully committing to the E-Manifest process.

Benefits of mFED

- Cost-Effective Pilot Testing: Carriers can explore the E-Manifest process without incurring substantial costs, making it accessible for businesses of all sizes.
- Enhanced Operational Insights: By participating in the E-Manifest initiative, carriers gain valuable insights into their operational efficiency and potential areas for improvement.
- Improved Security and Efficiency: The initiative aims to bolster security and streamline cash handling processes, reducing risks associated with cash shipments.

Open to All Carriers

While Morphis customers are welcome to use mFED, the app is available to all carriers, regardless of whether they are existing Morphis customers. This inclusivity ensures that every carrier has the opportunity to participate in the Federal Reserve's initiative and benefit from its advantages.

About the Federal Reserve Cash Visibility E-Manifest Initiative

The E-Manifest initiative is a groundbreaking effort by the Federal Reserve to enhance the cash supply chain's efficiency and security. By implementing better tracking and visibility of cash shipments, the initiative aims to reduce risks and improve overall operational performance for carriers.
